

Mind into Matters

ESTONIA: Information about mentors

Ruta Pels, mentor, Eesti People to People president since 1997

Ruta.pels@mail.ru

With her education on Departments of Journalism in Moscow University and London City University and professional background in media industry (news agencies ETA and BNS, newspapers, magazines, radio and TV) Ruta has competences to provide quality trainings for youth, youth workers and adults. She has experience as a mentor. Ruta participated in many projects in Estonia and abroad, wrote applications, implemented few Erasmus+ Programmes projects and has experiences in project management. Ruta was national coordinator in Leonardo da Vinci project "Cultural treasure hunt" about tourism and cooperates with Tallinn tourists club since 2005. Ruta works as a freelancer journalist for "Krasivaja Zizn" magazine in Estonia and write articles about tourism.

Leonid Smulskiy, mentor, Eesti People to People member of the board

Leonid.smulskiy@mail.ru

Leonid graduated from the Department of Journalism in Moscow University. He worked as executive editor in the daily newspapers in Estonia. He is professional photographer, has experience in Erasmus+ projects and Leonardo da Vinci project "Cultural treasure hunt" about tourism. Published many photos about tourism. Leonid works with rural tourism owners as a mentor.

Pavel Smulski, mentor, Eesti People to People

Paul_smulski@hotmail.com

Pavel has several years of experience in tourist industry and in the hotel business. He has worked as a freelance tourist guide mainly for French and English speaking groups in Estonia and the Baltic region. He works as a trekking tour guide in the nature as well as with the recreational farms in Western Estonia. He is also a trainer in non-formal education, participated and implemented Erasmus+ projects in few European countries. Pavel works as a consultant for several local and international tourist companies.

Project number: 2016-1-IS01-KA202-017090